Ovolo's all-inclusive business hotel offer Suite Living on the Other Side

Ovolo brings the best in modern city living to West Kowloon with the launch of its flagship business hotel as the hotel and serviced apartment operator expands beyond Hong Kong Island.

The 63 spacious two-bedroom, 500 sq ft and three-bedroom, 700 sq ft luxury suites at 256 Tung Chau Street feature modern compact design with large windows offering optimal natural lighting and eye-catching harbour and city views.

The design prioritises living room space to give guests the maximum area to relax and socialise. Sliding bedroom doors create further interconnectivity when desired.

'Three-point' bathrooms ease the morning roadblock by allowing 3 people to use different facilities at the same time.

Guests receive a welcome tray upon arrival and every apartment features deluxe queen feather beds, a fully equipped kitchen, electronic safe and bathroom amenities.

“Our design is all about Suite Life, allowing for multi-occupancy, high-quality communal living on a budget.”

Each of the suites also features a unique individual phone line, which the guests can give out to friends and colleagues.
